CONTEXT

Biographical history:	Lady Mary Arabella Arthur Cecil (1850-1903) was the elder daughter of the 2 nd Marquess of Salisbury by his 2 nd wife, Lady Mary Catherine Sackville-West. She was given the middle name of Arthur due to her mother's long-standing friendship with the Duke of Wellington. She married Alan Plantagenet Stewart, the 10 th Earl of Galloway in 1872. They had no children.
Archival history:	The papers are one of a number of collections (including those of her mother, Lady Derby) that were bequeathed by Colonel Reginald Cecil to Angela Cecil in 1931. Colonel Reginald Cecil was the grandson of Lady Derby and nephew of Lady Galloway.
Acquisition:	The papers were transferred to Hatfield House Archives, ca. 1970, following the death of Angela Cecil.

CONTENT AND STRUCTURE
