Place of Work

Hatfield House, the historic home of the Marquess of Salisbury, sits within Hatfield Park, the centrepiece to the Hatfield Park Estate, which is located on the eastern fringe of Hatfield in Hertfordshire. Hatfield Park Estate is managed by a dedicated management team based at the Estate Office, a short distance from Hatfield House. The Estate is a vibrant business which is primarily focused upon let residential and commercial property, along with farming and forestry, development and tourism, leisure and hospitality. Hatfield House and Gardens are open to the public from Easter until the end of September whilst the Park is open to local members all year round. In addition to day visitors, the estate hosts a number of large and small events, filming projects, together with parties, weddings and functions at a variety of locations across the estate. Gascoyne takes a long-term approach to business and is committed to delivering high quality economic, social and environmental value – a long term sense of responsibility is fundamental to the way in which the estate is managed.
